

The way to the restaurant

“Chez Alriq”

“Chez Alriq”

- Restaurant is located on the other side of the river (La Garonne)
- Highly appreciated place during summer for the view of Bordeaux and fresh air.
- Do not trust Google Street View : The photos are very old and the neighborhood has been completely redone.

Your mission :

Arriving on time and at the right place

Part 1 : Go to the center

- Go to the nearest tramway B station called “Arts et Métiers”.
- Then take tramway B in direction of “Claveau” or “La cité du Vin” (on the opposite side of ENSEIRB).
Frequency is 6 to 8 min.
- Stop at station “Hôtel de Ville”, this is the station near the church.

Part 2 : Cross the Garonne (river)

Destination

"Hôtel de Ville"

Option 0 : You are an adventurer

You take an open hardware Jetski !

Option 1 : You want a cheaper and low-energy powered solution

You can swim...

Using a pool armband powered by Pulpino !

MultiCore :

2 “ARM”
core powered

Option 2 : You're a great walker

- Cross the Garonne walking on the “Pont de Pierre”.
- It is an entirely pedestrian bridge with the tram and some buses. Really nice view.
- It will take about 35 minutes from “Hotel de Ville” until “Chez Alriq”

Option 3 : You are a great tramway liker

- Cross the Garonne using tramway A.
- You have to walk maybe 40m, then take tramway A in direction of “Floirac, Dravemont” or “La gascette, Bassens, Carbon Blanc”. It is on the opposite side of church.
- Stop at station “Stalingrad” and walk along the Garonne. The river must be on your LEFT while you’re walking.
- This is a nice place to walk.

Two More Things

Tramway B : PSG (Football) issue

There is currently a football match :

Bordeaux against PSG

at the Matmut stadium (accessible by tram B). There could be some disturbances.

Ligue 1 · Aujourd'hui, 17:30

Bordeaux

contre

PSG

Let's take a selfie together !!